- 12.1 The management of the Society shall be vested in a Management Committee, responsible for the administration and finances of the Society and elected by and from Members (other than Honorary Members) of the Society at the Annual General Meeting or at a Special General Meeting called for that purpose.
- 12.2 The Management Committee shall consist of the President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and four other Members.
- 12.3 The Management Committee shall have power to co-opt up to two further Members, and may fill casual vacancies.
- 12.4 The position of any Member of the Management Committee who is absent from three consecutive meetings whether General or Committee, without leave of absence shall become vacant. Acceptance of an apology shall be deemed granting of such leave.
- 12.5 The Management Committee may appoint sub-committees. The President shall ex-officio be a Member of all such sub-committees. A sub-committee must include at least one member of the Management Committee other than the President. A sub-committee may appoint, or co-op people as required, subject to ratification by the Management Committee. Membership of sub-committees need not be confined to Members of the Society.
- 12.6 The Management Committee shall be responsible to the Society for the efficient management of the Society's affairs and shall present, through the President, an Annual Report of the affairs of the Society to each Annual General Meeting.

- 12.7 A summary of proceedings at each Management Committee meeting shall be verbally reported to the next General Meeting of the Society.
- 12.8 The Management Committee shall meet no less than four times in each financial year.
- 12.9 The Management Committee may make such Rules as it considers necessary for the efficient management of the Society's affairs and effective discharge of its responsibilities as provided for in this Constitution. All Rules made by the Management Committee shall be ratified by the Society in a General Meeting and no Rule shall have effect until it is so ratified.
- 12.10 A record of Rules, amended to date, shall be at every General Meeting of the Society.
- 12.11 Honorariums may be made payable to officers elected to the positions of President, Secretary, Treasurer, the Editor of the Buzzword magazine and the Website Manager. The amount payable for honorariums is to be ratified at the Annual General Meeting each year, with payments to be made payable the first Thursday of June in the following year.
- 12.12 The position of Public Officer is to be ratified by the Management Committee at the first Committee meeting after the Annual General Meeting.

13. Finance

- 13.1 The financial year of the Society shall end on 30 June.
- 13.2 An Auditor shall be appointed at the Annual General Meeting of the Society.
- 13.3 The books of accounts shall be balanced and audited as soon as practicable after the end of the financial year of the Society, and in any case before the Annual General Meeting. The audit shall include the Society's movable assets.
- 13.4 The Treasurer shall present at each Annual General Meeting a financial statement certified by the Auditor.
- 13.5 The Treasurer shall maintain a register of the assets of the Society.
- 13.6 No expenditure, outside of the approved budget, greater than $1000.00, shall be incurred without the prior approval of members at a General Meeting.
- 13.7 All moneys received shall be deposited in the Society's bank account as soon as practicable thereafter, and all payments from the bank account shall be authorised by any one of the President, Secretary and Treasurer.
- 13.8 All income and property of the Society shall be applied solely towards the objects of the Society and no portion thereof shall be transferred to or paid to any Member of the Society or relatives of Members by way of bonus, dividend or otherwise howsoever by way of profit, provided that nothing shall prevent the payment on good faith of remuneration to any Member of, or person co-opted by, the Society for any services rendered to the Society or any rental paid by the Society for any Member for the use of premises rented by the Society.

14. Expulsion and suspension from membership

- 14.1 Any Member may be expelled, or suspended from membership at the discretion of the Management Committee, provided that such a Member shall be advised of the allegations and have the right of appeal to a Special General Meeting.
- 14.2 The Management Committee shall give at least 14 days' notice in writing of its intention to consider a motion to suspend the membership of, or expel that Member. The notice shall detail all allegations made against the Member and shall invite the Member to attend before the Management Committee at the time appointed for consideration of the said motion to answer the allegations.

- 14.3 Voting on a motion of suspension or expulsion, or on an appeal there from, shall be by a simple majority.

15. Interpretation of the Constitution

- 15.1 The Management Committee shall rule on the application of any clause of this Constitution. Any dissension to a ruling shall be decided by a vote of a General Meeting, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

16. Amendment of the Constitution

- 16.1 The Constitution may be amended by a three-quarters majority at a Special General or Annual General Meeting, provided 21 days' notice of the proposed amendment has been given to all Members.

17. Dissolution

- 17.1 The Society may be wound up in the manner provided for in the Act.

The Society may be dissolved by a special resolution, as defined in the Act, at a meeting for the purpose of winding up the Society. Members must have been given at least 21 days written notice specifying the intention of that meeting.

The resolution must be passed by a majority of not less than three quarters of members present and eligible to vote at that meeting.

After the discharge of all liabilities, the assets of the Society are to be distributed to any Society or Association specifically formed to take over from this Society or to a South Australian Institution carrying out scientific research or training in apiculture. Upon such distribution, the Society shall be dissolved.
